Death of Mrs. Charles W. Leach-News of the Town.

(Mrs. W. P. Russell, Correspondent.) A shadow was cast over the whole community last Friday morning when the words went out that Lottie R Leach had passed away during the night. While she had been a great sufferer for weeks and months, her courage and cheerfulness had made her friends look for recovery, even when her physicians and nurses gave but little hope. Death occurred at the hospital in St. Johnsbury, where she had been for nine weeks. The funeral was held from the Congregational church at East Burke Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. J. Hutchinson and Rev. Mr. Rose officiating. The interment was at Woodmont cemetery. The profusion of beautiful flowers as well as the large attendance testified
